

LOBA Industrial

Surfaces to suit custom quality requirements.

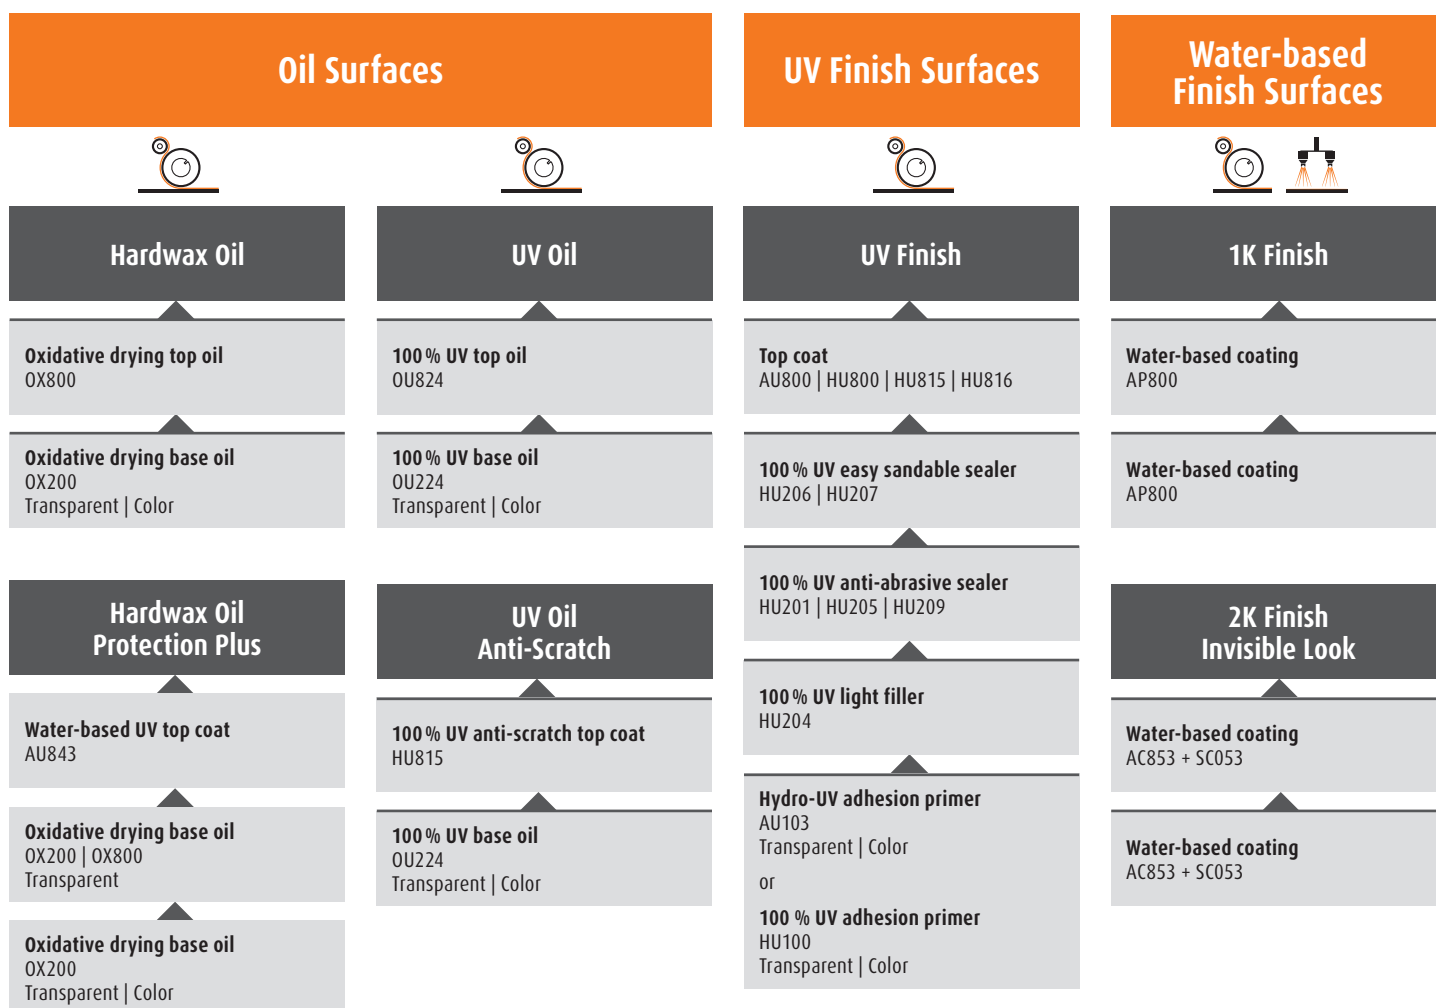

LOBA – Your partner for surface finishing and care

LOBA On Top!

Based in Ditzingen near Stuttgart, LOBA was founded over a century ago. The core business is finishing and care of wood floors. LOBA also offers expertise in the finishing of resilient flooring. With subsidiaries in Brazil and China, as well as joint ventures with Wakol in Poland and North America, the LOBA Group currently employs around 195 people, 115 of whom work in Ditzingen, Germany. Since 1922, LOBA has established its successful brand in over 60 countries through technical excellence, premium products, and unwavering dedication to its customers. LOBA On Top!

Loba Technologies – Set up examples

A wide range of combination options for your individual set up

All products can be combined in the set up to achieve the desired surface

Colors: endless design possibilities

- Different staining systems for all set ups
- Very simple application of the color system

Technical requirements

- DIN EN 16511 Mechanical locked floor coverings
- EN 438-2 Chemical resistance
- EN 16094 Micro-scratch resistance
- ISO 24338 Falling sand and abrasive paper strips

Look & feel for every customer requirement

- Extra matte option
- Raw wood / Invisible look & feel
- All gloss levels
- Various texture options

Cleaning & Care

Suitable products for contractors and end customers for long-lasting hardwood flooring

Your contact

Frank Schneider

Head of Industrial Sales – International

Phone: +49 160 71 92 258

Email: frank.schneider@loba.de

Chris Krüger

Service Technician for Industrial Systems

Phone: +49 174 34 88 147

Email: chris.krueger@loba.de